

.... by the sea

Sidney and the Saanich Peninsula
British Columbia, Canada

indulge gaze escape inspire gather enjoy

Just minutes from Victoria International Airport and the British Columbia and Anacortes Ferries, enchanting Sidney and the Saanich Peninsula provide boutiques, galleries, coffee houses, exquisite restaurants, spas, wineries, historical sites, whale watching, scuba diving, renowned Butchart Gardens, a host of world-class accommodations, and much more.

pamper explore cruise stroll dine relax

With its spectacular west coast setting, Sidney by the Sea, located on the Saanich Peninsula just outside Victoria on British Columbia's Vancouver Island, offers residents and visitors small town charm, limitless activities, state-of-the-art meeting and convention facilities, seaside breezes and walkways, endless scenery, and the mildest climate in Canada.

Sidney and the Saanich Peninsula

British Columbia, Canada

Safe, friendly Sidney and the Saanich Peninsula offer something for everyone. Meander through the many book stores and artist studios, enjoy village shopping and festivals, dine out, or take in live theatre. For the adventurous, go golfing, savour the flavour of local wineries and farms, or explore unique sealife with marine ecotours around the nearby Gulf Islands. And for business visitors, take a break from meetings and get invigorated with a waterfront stroll.

Be inspired.

Come to Sidney and the Saanich Peninsula to experience it all

... by the sea.

world-class destination small town charm

Photography by: Eva Barnes, Sean Broome, Mel Falk, Russ Heint, Phillipa Hudson, Rick Hudson, Bob Orchard, Linda Plimley and Aaron Reith

Compliments of:

